Message from Heath Richmond

Summertime is here and after months of complaining about the cold and wind, we will soon be complaining about the heat and humidity. What would we do if we didn't have something to complain about? The human condition is one of always looking for something different and better instead of taking the time to appreciate all the good things we have. And while having millions of dollars in the bank or living in a tropical paradise would be nice, most of us really do have it pretty good.

As volunteers with RSVP, you all demonstrate this by your willingness to give back to our communities all year long. As the year 2023 nears its mid-point, I would like you all to consider how recruiting someone to join you as a RSVP volunteer can multiply the positive impact you are already making. I am sure you all know someone who would make a wonderful volunteer or even someone who is already volunteering but is not yet registered with RSVP. If so, reach out and ask them to join us or simply pass their contact info on to us and we will reach out for you.

Thanks again for all you do and, hopefully, we will soon have some more registered volunteers out there helping with your favorite projects as well.

Heath

WHY WORLD ELDER ABUSE AWARENESS DAY IS IMPORTANT

OLDER AMERICANS MAY BE UNABLE TO ADVOCATE FOR THEMSELVES

Many seniors are not in a place to stand up for themselves, whether it's because they're physically frail or because they're scared of speaking up and fear repercussions. It's crucial for all of us to be on the lookout for signs of elder abuse, and to speak up if something seems wrong.

SENIORS DESERVE OUR RESPECT AND OUR ATTENTION

In so many cultures, elders are revered—and rightfully so. Their experiences, memories, and perspective on life are valued for the lessons that younger folks can learn. And if older people aren't encouraged to pass along the skills and wisdom they have accumulated during their lives, then the culture as a whole suffers. We owe it to older generations to ensure that their so-called Golden Years are not tarnished by neglect.

IT REMINDS US TO LOOK OUT FOR EACH OTHER

It's easy to see bad things and not say anything—whether that's senior abuse or a mugging on the street. But this day reminds us just how important it is to look after, and look out for, our fellow humans. It reminds us to exercise compassion on a daily basis, and care about others rather than just ourselves.

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day aims to provide an opportunity for communities around the world to promote a better understanding of the abuse older people suffer by raising awareness of the cultural, social, economic, and demographic processes affecting them. Globally, we have an aging population, with the number of older people in the world expected to be 1.4 billion by 2030. Research suggests that 4 to 6 percent of the elderly suffer from some kind of abuse, most of which go unreported. This day is to make sure we remain focused on our elders, ensuring they lead a life of high quality and dignity.

Please wear PURPLE on Thursday, June 15, to support

Message from Golden Bridges

Golden Bridges is looking for staff—not volunteers, and retired people who want to make a difference in the community are our best employee pool! Actually, most of our staff is composed of retired teachers and healthcare workers. Our positions are part-time and episodic with most of the staff working 2—3 days a week in 4—6 hour shifts. Sometimes, they work for three weeks in a row and, sometimes, they don't work for three weeks in a row. Staff may choose their own schedule and must be able to lift up to 30 pounds and do stairs. If interested, please contact Susan Scholz, Senior Move Manager, at (888) 922-6368 ext. 6, (217) 316-6887, or Susan.Scholz@goldenbridges4you.com. (Please remember that paid hours do not count as volunteer hours.)

Tips on Timeshares and Vacation Clubs from the BBB

Timeshares and vacation clubs can be known for their high-pressure sales. With the sun out and their guard down, vacationers can quickly find themselves on the hook for a lifelong commitment. And while they're easy to get into, these contracts are often difficult to escape.

Some predatory companies and scammers are taking advantage of consumers looking for deals on travel according to customer complaints, reviews, and other data from a new BBB study.

Many people have great experiences with their timeshares or vacation clubs. BBB's study is intended to help consumers spot potential red flags and help businesses improve.

From 2020-2022, BBB received thousands of complaints related to travel companies. Most commonly, consumers said they felt reality didn't match the big promises made in timeshare pitch meetings.

Consumers also reported that their timeshares were nearly impossible to sell, and that they felt misled about the amount of maintenance fees for their property.

Some unhappy customers turned to timeshare exit companies to sell their timeshares, only to find that the exit companies were unable to follow through or failed to honor a money back guarantee.

BBB recommends careful research before working with any timeshare or exit company. Read reviews, get references, and investigate the company before signing a contract or making any payments.

BBB tips for anyone considering a timeshare or exit company:

- Research carefully. Extensively investigate timeshare properties, vacation clubs, or exit companies before working with them. Check their BBB Business Profiles to see customer reviews, ratings, and complaints that can help you make an informed decision.
- Read before you sign. Thoroughly read contracts for language about lifetime commitment, heirs' obligations, maintenance fee increases, or guarantees.
- Beware of high-pressure sales tactics. If you feel like someone is trying to push you into a deal, walk away.
- Sell with the company you bought from. To sell a timeshare, contact the resort directly and see if they have a resale or buyback program.
- Be realistic about what you can get for your timeshare. Most of these contracts are not investments and may return considerably less than you paid.
- If it sounds too good to be true, it is. There are deals to be found on travel, but scammers know consumers want to save money and take advantage.
- Don't pay fees up front. Be wary of paying timeshare exit companies all fees up front. Wait until services are rendered.
- Report it. If you suspect you may be the subject of fraud or dishonest business practices, you have a few avenues to report your case:

- * Better Business Bureau Scam Tracker<sup>SM</sup>

- * Federal Trade Commission \(FTC\)

- * File a consumer complaint with the Missouri Attorney General or Illinois Attorney General

- * American Resort Development Association \(ARDA\), timeshare trade association - email customerservice@arda.com
